

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, March 6. 1707.

London, March 6.

Yesterday arriv'd the 3 Mails due from Holland.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Mar. 4.

Milan, Feb. 19.

THE 15th of this Month Count Bonefana's new Regiment of Foot pass'd in Review before Prince Eugene of Savoy. The Garrison of the Castle have plac'd Cannon in the Room of those that were dismounted in the great Tower, and their Artillery has dismounted the Battery which the Besiegers had made at the Convent of Vecchi; so that the Imperialists have been oblig'd to draw off the Cannon of that Battery, and to remove to a Place of Security the Stores they had near it. They work likewise to finish the Line of Circumvallation and some Batteries, in order to cannonade the Castle on all sides. Prince Eugene has rewarded the German Gunner, who by a Bomb ruin'd the Tower of the Castle where the Governour had put up a Red Flag; and also dismounted 2 Cannon, and did great Damage to the Garrison. Of two Soldiers of the Regiment of Bonefana who attempted to get into the Castle, one was taken, and will be shot, the other got in. Notes have been thrown into the Castle, by which the French that will desert are offer'd Passports to retire whither they will; the Spaniards and Italians to be receiv'd into the Service of King Charles; and the Officers to have the same Employments and Offices they have at present. The Governour has likewise been threaten'd, that if he fires on the City no Quarter shall be given him; and that if he causes any Houses to be set on Fire by Bombs or burning Bullets, the Garrison shall be treated as Incendiaries. Yesterday the Garrison, who begin to find themselves streighten'd, made a Sally, but without Success, and some Men were kill'd on both sides.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated March 8.

Milan, Feb. 22. The Besiegers are advanc'd near to the Ditch of the Castle, and last Night there was a great Fire of Musquets on both sides. The Line of Circumvallation is almost finish'd. Two Batteries are making for 30 Pieces of heavy Artillery, to cannonade the Bastions. Prince Eugene of Savoy is every Day in the Trenches with the other Generals. We wait for the Troops of the Prince of Hesse Cassel, to reinforce those employed in the Siege, in order to attack the Place with Vigour, in case the Besieged do not prevent it by a Capitulation. The Duke and Dutchess of Modena, are come to their Capital City, and were receiv'd with extraordinary Rejoycing. The Town of Reggio has sent Deputies to compliment them.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Mar. 8.

Turin, Feb. 25. The 16th Instant in the Morning the Count de Taun set out from hence for Milan, and the Hereditary Prince of Hesse-Cassel will be going thither the 21st Instant. Notwithstanding that in the present Condition of Affairs we have nothing to fear, his Royal Highness causes the new Works to be carried on with all Diligence, and 'tis hop'd they will be finish'd within a Month.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated March 11.

The Advices from Milan of the 26th, are; that the Imperialists had cannonaded the Castle with Success from the 22d; but that the Artillery of the Besieged having dismounted 3 of their Cannon and damag'd 2 others, had oblig'd them to discontinue firing, in order to repair their Battery, which is of 20 Pieces of Cannon. The Garrison of the Castle had made 2 Sallies, in the first of which they had good Success, but not long, being vigorously repuls'd; and that the 2d had no Success: From which Sallies 'twas conjectur'd the Garrison was weak, and wanted several Necessaries. The same Advices say, that the Duke of Savoy had sent the Marquis de Constanza with 8 Battallions, to take Possession of the Town of Alexandria and its Territory, of which the Emperour has granted him the Investiture: That 'twas believ'd his Royal Highness would lay Siege to Valenza on the Po, with 18000 Foot and 4000 Horse; and that besides he would send a Detachment of Troops, with Ammunition and Cannon, to compleat the Reduction of the Dependencies on the Milaneze. The Siege of Final was also talk'd of.

Other Letters say, that since the Count de Taun arriv'd at Milan, the Approaches were carried on with Vigour, and were advanc'd to within 18 Paces of the Counterscarp: And that the Besiegers having receiv'd a Reinforcement of 3000 Men, with 12 Pieces of Cannon, were raising a new Battery at S. Lucia, in order to batter the Castle on that side. Prince Eugene is continually in the Approaches, and the Castle fires no more upon the City.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Mar. 11.

Venice, Feb. 25. The Imperialists continue the Blockade of Cremona: But some Letters from the Bressan advise, that the Troops of Hesse having quitted that Blockade to go to the Siege of the Castle of Milan, the Count de Medavi had taken the Opportunity to put a Reinforcement of 3000 Men into the Place.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated March 11.

Letters from Turin of the 22d of February advise, that Advice was come thither from Genoa, that Admiral Shovel had detach'd 10 Men of War from his Fleet, to recover the Island of Minorca, and drive the Count de Villars from thence.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated March 8.

Paris, March 4. A Courier from Spain has brought Advice, that the Enemy have already retaken some small Places in the Kingdom of Valencia; and that the Duke of Berwick who had been a few Days at Madrid, was gone agen Post to the Frontiers, to draw the Army together and observe the Enemy. The Number of the Rebels in Arragon is so increas'd, that Count Tilly has sent several Expresses to the Court of Madrid, for Succours: The said Rebels have besieg'd Jaca, and will be Masters of it unless it be reliev'd very speedily. The Departure of the Duke of Orleans's Baggage is put off for some Days, and it begins now to be doubted that

France

Prince will not go to Spain. Last Night an Express arriv'd at Court, with an Account that the Amirante and a Petache, detach'd from the Flota of Vera-Cruz by the Viceroy of Mexico, are arriv'd at Brest, in Company of 2 French Ships.

'Tis an odd Story, that the Amirante which should command the Flota from New Spain, should be detach'd from it. Perhaps that Flota was met by an English Squadron and dispers'd, and the Amirante with the Petache and the two French Ships made their Escape.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Mar. 11.

Paris, Mar. 7. The two Spanish Ships which arriv'd at Brest from the West-Indies the 27th of last Month, are nam'd the Guadaloupe Capitana of the Squadron of New Spain commanded by Don Andrew de Pez General of the Gallies, carrying 50 Brass Guns; and the Nuestra Señora del Incarnacion commanded by Don Diego Sanchez, carrying 20 Guns. The first has on board 4 Millions of Pieces of Eight, and the other 2 Millions, besides Merchandize, of which part is for Philip V. The two French Ships, which are likewise richly laden, are the Surbeck of Nants, and the Glorieux of St. Malo. The two Spanish Ships came from the Havana the 24th of January 1707, and in their Voyage fell in with the 2 French Ships: They all design'd to put into some Port of Biscay, but by contrary Wind were forc'd to come to Brest. The same Day these 4 Ships arriv'd at Brest, M. du Quesne sail'd from thence with 22 Men of War and Frigates. Yesterday the King sent two Expresses to Madrid, one with Dispatches for the Duke of Berwick, containing Instructions about the Operations of the ensuing Campaign; the other to acquaint the Court of Spain, and the Merchants of Seville and Cadix, with the Arrival of the foresaid Ships. To Day the French and Swiss Guards march'd for Lille, and will be follow'd by the other Troops of the King's Household the 15th Instant.

It is a great and stupendous Medicine, having sav'd the Lives of many, doing the Cure on the Spot after a Thousand other things fail, when it is taken into the Mouth the Cough doth instantly Cease, and after 2 Days return no more, the Truth whereof is sufficiently evinc'd by Examples of Cures in former Advertisements. N. B. This excellent Secret is nowhere to be had save at, John's Coffee-house in Swithin's Alley by the Royal Exchange, and at the 7 Stars under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street. Price 1 s. each Bottle.

The Royal Lotion, for Cutting the Hair of the Head, which by its Strengthening, Corroborating Quality, us'd only once now and then, will cause the Hair to Curl, be it never so Lank and Weak, to a Wonder; it being much preferable to Curling Irons so commonly us'd, which not only makes the Ends Red or Yellow, but so debiliates and makes it so Rotten as to snap at the least touch: But this is so sensibly agreeable to the Nature of the Hair, as not to discover it in the least, but may be us'd by Persons on themselves; it is of so Corroborating and Strengthening Nature, as quite to alter its Feeble Disposition, and yet is very Innocent, and may be very Serviceable to Gentlemen wearing their own Hair, as also for Ladies and Children, which by its use will be rendered the Wonder of Beholders; its of a Fragrant Smell. Is only to be had at Mr. Harrison's at the VVhite-Hart in the Poultry, and at Mrs. Cole's at the Dial and 2 Crowns, against St. Dunstan's Church, Fleetstreet, at 1 s. 6 d. each, with Printed Directions.
